

Courtesy photo

YTI Career Institute's SkillsUSA competition team includes (from left): front row — Paul Amigh (SkillsUSA adviser), Jennifer Wills, Amber Engle, Marie Stehley, Leslie Barcelona, Jenny Heatley, Nicole Gill and Cynthia Trenger (SkillsUSA adviser); second row — Clayton Davis, Kelly Barr, Amanda Dick, Robert Tremmel, Kelsie Murphy and Katie Scott. Tammy Desch is missing from the photo.

YTI attends Skills USA district contest

PLEASANT GAP — The YTI Career Institute SkillsUSA team competed at the district competition on Jan. 24 at the Central PA Institute.

The results for local students are as follows:

- Robert Tremmel, Coupon, computer maintenance, first place.

- Leslie Barcelona, Mount Union, dental assisting, second place.

- Marie Stehley, Altoona, customer service, first place.

- Kelsie Murphy, Houtzdale, dental assisting, third place.

- Nicole Gill, Hollidaysburg, first aid/CPR, first place.

- Clayton Davis, Tyrone, Internetworking, first place.

- Tammy Desch, Altoona, medical assisting, first place.

- Katie Scott, Tyrone, medical math, first place.

- Jenny Heatley, Grassflat, medical terminology, first place.

- Amanda Dick, Duncansville; Jennifer Wills, Morrisdale; Kelly Barr, Altoona; and Amber Engle, Altoona; health occupation knowledge bowl, first place.

The following SkillsUSA members advanced to the state competition:

Community Service — Cameron Querry, Six Mile Run; and Joseph Robertazzi III, Altoona.

Web Design — Alex Smith, Cresson; and Dustin Marlin, Duncansville.

Paul Amigh is the SkillsUSA adviser at YTI Career Institute.